MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT : Herbert Itkin/Mario Brod

1. Pursuant to your instructions, I had NYFO interview Mr. Philip HORTON, to ascertain whether or not he might be the Philip HARBIN, who was allegedly ITKIN's contact with the Agency during 1954. Reference is made to the attached report of interview of Mr. HORTON wherein he comments that he does not know ITKIN; did not recruit him; and never acted as a "cut-out" or handler for Mr. ITKIN. HORTON states further that since leaving OSS, he has had no contact with the CIA. (This is not strictly true, since he did write a letter to Mr. Helms not too long ago.)

2. I will ask the Office of Finance to attempt a trace of the receipt for $5,000.00 that ITKIN claims he gave HARBIN in approximately 1957. However, I am inclined to believe that this recruitment is a figment of ITKIN's imagination.
