The Privacy Act, Public Law 93-579, requires that Federal agencies inform individuals when they are asked to provide their Social Security Account Number (SSN) whether the disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what authority such number is solicited and what uses will be made of the SSN. Disclosure by you of your SSN is voluntary. The authority for this solicitation is Executive Order 9397. The SSN is used as an identifier in requests for access certification. Failure to provide your SSN may delay the processing required to obtain a security access certification.
