FROM : S/A J. F. Emse

SUBJECT: # 40696

[Redacted]

Special Contracting Officer, Dept. 3908 advised that in writing up the contract for the subject, this date, it came to his attention that the subject is entering the Agency building to obtain shorts, and it is also anticipated that he shall enter Agency bldgs.
over a one year period for "indoctrination." It is stated that subject's contract shall be written but, he wanted to advise the S.D. of this matter so that Subject's clearance could be properly processed.

PP/Staff. # 8606 was advised that the above had come to our attention & that

- 1) Subject's clearance was for use in the U.S. only - any contemplated overseas use should be brought to the attention of this office;
- 2) That Subject's presence in this or any overt body was contrary to Classification Service Instructions;
- 3) That Subject's presence in these bodies on a visitors pass is highly unsatisfactory & Physical Secy. representatives shall be notified of this.
- 4) That this office intends to go on record to ST/C regarding this matter. Newley stated he is in full
