Chairman, Honor Awards Board

Acting Security Advisor, HAB

Honor Awards Recommendations

Ref : Memo for Chairman, HAB dtd 12 Sept 56 from Mr. Robert M. Gaynor -
Subject: Approval of Pending Honor Awards Recommendations

1. Reference memo requested that the Acting Security Advisor to the HAB review the cases contained therein to determine if the citations and awards, when proffered, may be retained by the recipients. With respect to this request, the following recommendations are submitted:

a. Recommendation by the Security Advisor to the HAB that awards and citations should not be physically released into the recipient's personal custody if PCS overseas until he returns to Headquarters PCS is confirmed. In such cases there will be no security objections to notifying the individual that he had been awarded the medal. Such notification should inform the recipient of any appropriate security restrictions relating to the award.

(1) First Presentation: [Roger Coiran,⁰³
[redacted] Joseph C. Goodwin, [redacted]]
There would be no security objections to giving the citation and award into their personal custody subject to paragraph 1a above. However, with respect to Mr. Goodwin, it is recommended that upon his return PCS to the States, his case be reviewed for possible security and cover implications before physically releasing into his personal custody the citation and award. The above with respect to [Coiran]⁰³ [redacted] and Goodwin has the informal concurrence of the Deputy Chief, NEA Division. The Deputy Chief, FE Division informally concurred in the above regarding Mr. [redacted]⁰³

⁰³ (4) Fourth Presentation: Tracy C. Barnes,
David A.
Phillips, Nestor D. Sanchez, ⁰³

There would be no security objections to giving these citations and awards into their personal custody subject to paragraph 1a above and certain stipulations as prescribed below by the Division concerned.

(a) The Deputy Chief, WH Division informally recommended on 21 September 1956
that the citations pertaining to the above persons should be marked "CIA Internal Use Only". (It is noted that the project with which these awards are concerned was within the jurisdiction of the WH Division.)

(b) The Deputy Chief, WH Division also stated that Mr. Phillips is now under non-official cover and he informally requested that the citation and award not be physically released into Mr. Phillips' personal custody while he is under such cover and also requested that this matter be reviewed at some later date.

(c) Regarding Mr. Sanchez, the Deputy Chief, NEA informally requested that since Mr. Sanchez was out of the States PCS for
