Omar LARES

No Office of Security traces.

Rolando BLANCO

Probably identical to Rolando BLANCO Bolanos (OS#223 744) on whom an OA was granted in October 1960 for use by WH/4/Cuba as a PP agent in Cuba and Caracas, Venezuela. There is no indication if and when interest was canceled but the Office of Security file was retired in 1966.

Orlando BOSCH

Possibly identifiable with Orlando BOSCH Avila (OS#257 971) on whom a POA was granted in September 1962 for PM Ops use by WH/4 in the Florida area. Files canceled in November 1962. FBI information reflects that BOSCH was sentenced in 1968 to 10 years imprisonment for shipbombings and extortion but was paroled in 1972. A warrant for his arrest was issued in 1974 apparently for parole violation (reinvolvement in terrorist activities) but he fled the United States. He was arrested by Venezuelan authorities in 1976 for his alleged involvement in the bombing of a Cubana Airlines plane in October 1976. BOSCH was of interest to the U. S. Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (SSCI) in December 1976 as a result of the Committee's investigation into the Agency's present and past relationships with members of the Cuban exile movement.

SANCA Results and Comments

Ricard MORALES Navarette

Possible identifiable with Ricardo MORALES Navarette (p. 30 Monthly Intelligence Report, 1 September 1968, OS#364 014) an alleged member of a "Cuban Power" group who was arrested in Miami in February 1968 for allegedly placing a bomb in the office of a firm shipping packages to Cuba. Named by De ARMAS (OS#591 865) as CIA in Havana press conference in April 1976.

Orlando GARCIA Vasquez

Possible identifiable with Orlando GARCIA Vasquez (OS# 224 866) on whom WH/4 requested a Covert Security Approval in September 1960. Interest was canceled in July 1961. WH/1/Venezuela requested name checks in October 1962 in connection with his proposed use as a [redacted] contact. [redacted] reportedly had [redacted] contact with him from 1960-1964. Name checks were again requested in November [redacted] by WH/3/Venezuela in connection with GARCIA's proposed use as an informant. Filed were canceled in November [redacted] The case was reinstated in January [redacted] only to be canceled again in November [redacted] Security file reflects GARCIA became a U. S. citizen in 1945 but renounced his citizenship in 1959 to accept an appointment in the Ministry of State of Cuba. He was alleged to be a Castro agent in 1960 but a 1961 polygraph failed to substantiate this charge. GARCIA did admit assassinating a number of people including two individuals in Costa Rica (in 1953 or 1954).
