GENERAL

At Washington, D.C.

<sup>06</sup> On 24 June 1963, educational records in the name of [Barbara T. TARASOFF] daughter of Boris D. TARASOFF, were made available by [Miss Virginia RONSAVILLE, Assistant Principal of Woodrow Wilson High School.] <sup>06, 08</sup> These records reflected that [Barbara T. <sup>06</sup> TARASOFF] has been a student at this school since [September 1961, at which time she transferred from <sup>08</sup> Kramer Junior High School.] She has completed her tenth and eleventh grades [at Woodrow Wilson High School.] <sup>08</sup>

Scholastic records further disclose that her father, Boris Dmetri TARASOFF is employed as an analyst, U.S. Government, 2430 E Street, N.W. Her mother's employment is reported as Clerk, U.S. Government, 2430 E Street, N.W.

<sup>06</sup> [Miss RONSAVILLE] stated that an unofficial transcript was given to [Barbara <sup>06</sup> TARASOFF] in June 1963, which reflects her father's employment as analyst, U.S. Government (no address given). This transcript does not reflect her mother's employment.

<sup>06</sup> [Miss RONSAVILLE] advised that to date, no official transcripts have been issued to, or on behalf of [Barbara.] <sup>06</sup> According to informant, any official transcripts would contain the same information as the unofficial transcript, concerning the employment of Boris D. TARASOFF, to wit., analyst, U.S. Government.
