Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 25 July 1977

23. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Called Gerry Burke, NSA, and indicated that as late as Friday night, Dave Bushong, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, was still of the opinion that Senator James Pearson (R., Kansas) would be traveling to the NSA facility in England. Later, Burke advised that the matter has been resolved that the Senator will not visit the facility, but instead will receive a briefing from the NSA representative in London.

24. (Unclassified - LLM) LIAISON In the company of Dick Rininger, OGC, Don Burns, OS, and Doug Cummins, of our office, I met for several hours with Bob Blakey, Chief Counsel, and James Wolf, staff of the House Select Committee on Assassinations, to review the Committee's security rules, non-disclosure agreement, and Memorandum of Understanding. We completed negotiations on the first two documents and resolved one of the two major problems with the Memorandum of Understanding. I told Blakey that we would try to have our counter-proposal to him either tomorrow or the next day which he said would be fine.

25. (Unclassified - LLM) BRIEFING Mike Van Dusen, House International Relations Committee staff, called to cancel the scheduled 29 July briefing of the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East because of the pre-recess squeeze on the Committee schedule and the fact that Chairman Lee Hamilton (D., Ind.) would like to have the DCI appear sometime in September.

26. (Unclassified - THW) BRIEFING I called Mike Van Dusen, House International Relations Committee staff, and told him that, unfortunately, the Director had another meeting which he had to attend on 29 July and, therefore, would not be able to appear before the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East on that date. I told him that we would be able to provide a senior official to brief the Subcommittee which he at first agreed to. He later called Mr. Miller and said that Chairman Hamilton wanted the Director to appear and, therefore, asked that the appearance be postponed until after the August recess.
