Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 21 November 1977

20. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Called Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, re Don Sanders', Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, request for access to NSC documents related to the [redacted] investigation. Hoskinson said he would see what could be done to speed up the NSC determination on Sanders' access in light of the interest to provide Sanders with all information needed so that the investigation could be wound up.

21. (Confidential - LLM) LIAISON Called Don Sanders, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, and explained our efforts to assure that he has the remaining material in his hands no later than tomorrow so that he can finish writing up his report on the [redacted] investigation but suggested that he call Sam Hoskinson, NSC staff, directly (I had previously told Hoskinson that I would do this) on the NSC documents since we were really not in control of the situation and our role has been to see what we could do to facilitate resolution of the problem on the documents. Mr. Sanders was most understanding.

22. (Internal Use Only - LLM) LIAISON Tom Latimer, Staff Director, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, called concerning an inquiry by Representative Jim Mattox (D., Texas) on whether the Agency has any interest in the training of Ugandans in Texas by Bell Helicopter. Latimer would prefer that we handle this directly with Representative Mattox, stressing their policy of not acting as an intermediary between the Agency and congressional inquiries. I told Latimer I was sure we had no interest in this training but I would check and if I had a problem I would reserve the option to get him involved.

He also said that Representative Les Aspin (D., Wis.), in light of the publicity on the activities of the [redacted] is interested in our [redacted] to prevent, for example, [redacted] I told Latimer that there are limitations accomplished through third agency activities which are proscribed for CIA and I would get together for him whatever written regulations exist on this point.

23. (Unclassified - RSG) LIAISON Called Jackie Hess, Researcher, House Select Committee on Assassinations, and gave her a status report on all actions received from the Committee.
