COMMENTS

1. Classified SECRET this document presents no problem in a technical sense. (U)

2. Released in an unclassified format, the report would identify in extremely fine detail the workings of the Mexico City Station at the time of Lee H. Oswald's visit to Mexico City. Names of staffers and contract agents, cryptonyms, safe site locations, [redacted] operations against the Soviet target are discussed. [redacted] (S)

3. The report is suspicious of CIA in tone and implies that CIA even today is concealing evidence, for example, Oswald's photograph. (U)
