UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : Chief, Appraisal Section

DATE: 13 OCT 1961

FROM

[REDACTED] 03
Appraisal Section

SUBJECT:

[REDACTED] 03
#214442

(SECRET ONLY)

1. Subject was security approved, subject to polygraph, on 5 September 1961 for Contract Type A employment at Miami, Florida. On 5 October 1961 he was polygraphed with results as set forth below.

3. During the initial appraisal of Subject's case on 31 August 1961 Subject's extensive foreign background and his family was considered. (Tab A) In addition, during the current CIA investigation of Subject no information was developed which would reflect on the honesty, loyalty, or integrity of Subject or his family. During the initial appraisal of Subject's case the likelihood of "pressure" from foreign relatives was also considered. Subject's father holds a Provisional Operational approval.

4. In view of the favorable investigation of Subject, his security approval after initial appraisal, and the results of his polygraph interview, it is believed that,
