UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

SECRET

TO : File

DATE: 30 June 1964

FROM : Chief, Alien Affairs Staff

SUBJECT: Vladimir RODRIGUEZ Lahere -- SP-1693

1. On 30 June 1964, [redacted] WH/SA, called to ask whether I&NS had determined if subject could be a refugee.

2. A call to Charles McCarthy, I&NS, reflected that I&NS has decided to keep subject in "SP" status because of his background, but will give him an I-512 whenever it is needed. I&NS will give subject an I-94 so that he will be like any other refugee.

3. I advised [redacted] of this decision and that subject should also start processing for an immigrant visa. She said subject's application for immigrant visa was left with Consular Officer, Montreal, when subject left Canada. I asked [redacted] to cable Canada and find out if and when the application was filed and send AAS a memo asking that we expedite the visa processing.

*7-2-64
Chas. McCarthy I&NS called to ask if subject has a possesion on I-94 given it to be issued the Canada border. McCarthy asked if the I-94 is returned + he would give subject a new one as per our request. [redacted] WH/SA found the old I-94 + sent it to the Staff. It was returned to McCarthy.*
