MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Debriefing of Jose Marcos DIAZ y Linares
 28-29 July 1959, Tampa, Florida

1. Mr. Ben C. Evans and Mr. Joe L. Then arrived in Tampa at 1415 28 July 1959 and were met by Mr. Bernard Riechardt. We immediately went to the Hillsborough Hotel where we registered as Ben C. Elliot and John L. Taldy respectively, listing Department of State as place of employment.
2. Subject was in Room 215 with Mr. [redacted] Office of Security. We introduced ourselves to Subject as Ben Elliot and John Taldy.
3. Subject was using the name Mariano JIMINEZ y Gomez, which appeared on his I&ES identification slip.
4. Subject was debriefed, almost exclusively in English for five hours on 28 July and again for approximately the same amount of time on the 29th.
5. Subject was cooperative, responded to all questions, and appeared to be under no stress. He did inquire about his family in Cuba and the whereabouts of his brother Pedro Luis, but evinced no grave concern.
6. Subject's views, as related in the attached, are probably colored by his respect for Pedro Luis and a desire to demonstrate his brother's importance, stature, and role in the future of Cuba.
7. No security problems were encountered.

 Ben C. Evans

PRESENT STATUS OF FAR

1. Juan ALMEIDA, a yes man to FC who can't fly and knows nothing about aircraft or air forces, has fired 19 officers from FAR since taking over, among them were the best pilots.
2. There are presently 13 or 14 pilots in FAR and only 6 or 7 are any good.
3. Status of aircraft.
 - Jets: Total 5. 4 will fly.
 - propellers: Total 20. 6 will fly.
 - DC-3 Total 4.
 - C-47 Total 2
 - C-46 Total 2. One in bad shape
 - UC-4 Total 2. One being repaired.
 - Bell Helicopt total 7 One burned recently
 - S-26 total (forgot to ask JM, but he did say they had no spares for them.
4. Ammo
 - 1.5 million rds .50 cal
 - 15 to 25 500 lb bombs.
 - "some" rockets.
5. have taken all 50 cal MG from F-47's and put on tripods for ground and air defense in areas where they expect attack.
6. All mechanics are former Batista personnel. Most replacement and repairs done by cannibalizing.
7. FC is trying to get jets from Venez. no details on this.
8. FAR employs 11 Chilean instructors at $750/ea/mo. In the presence of JM, FC asked them if they were ready to fight for Cuba, and since they were hired for instructors they didn't know what to say
9. Training. JM established a prep-school for persons who wanted to take the exams for flight training. Located at Caracua, Havana. In Mar 59 had 350 students 190 of which were illiterate. F.C. told him that there was no need to take exams, that he didn't want any "fancy-boys" but wanted pilots like the Japanese KAMEZUMI that would go where they were told.
10. Other Air: CUBANA AERO POSTAL. Has 4 C-46's. Under direction of Capt Inu SEYDI who sends plane every 3 or 4 days to Miami to smuggle in arms. JM believes SEYDI is comrade (See 46)
 - CUBANA Air Lines: FC fired all experienced pilots. Now operating at $400,000 per month loss.
11. 26 Jul Forces Distribution: Havana: 3000 of which 1200 FAR personnel. Habana Fortress: 1500. Mantaza 300. Santa Clara: 300. Canagucos: 2500. Santiago de Cuba: 3-5000. Pinar del Rio: 700. POLICIA: 3000 Havana 2000 Elsewhere.

1. Father ~~Don~~ O'FARREL. ^{looks} Now that JM is out of Cuba, he, to O'FARREL to be his principal "contact man" between PL, himself and anti-CASTRO elements in Cuba. JM intends to have him come to Miami periodically for this purpose. He is forming a large anti-FC organization, is in touch with VASCONA, MENOYA, BARRON, and dissident elements in F.R. JM has known him since 1956. He is about 50 and was described as being a damn fool for being so outspoken in anti-FC feelings. JM intends to contact him through the Catholic convent Padres Dominicos, San Juan de Letren, located in the Vedado Section, Havana on 19th St between J&I

2. Rafael BOTELLO Located in Miami as principal ~~contact~~ for operations covering PEDRAZZA's plans and activities. Reports go directly to Capt Alfredo SIERRA ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ A-2 F.R. and then to F.C. Has been in Miami for 3 mos. JM saw all these reports up until the time he left office. JM intends to contact him in Havana and see recent reports and get copies of all reports for his use. Feels BOTELLO will cooperate. According to Botello's reports PEDRAZZA has 6-8,000 men, 8 P-51's, 2 B-26 and a total of 30 planes. 5-700 men in Cuba. according to JM ~~xxxx~~, PEDRAZZA will attack Cuba within 60 days by land and sea, with landings on north coast. JM thinks MENOYA permitted PEDRAZZA elements to land weapons in 2d Front Escambray with idea that F.C. and PEDRAZZA can fight it out then 2d Front can move in and capitalize on a weakened F.C. and seize control of situation. F.C. knows all the details of these preparations in Santa Domingo and therefore will attack. On the other hand TRUJILLO will encourage PEDRAZZA to attack Cuba.

3. Juan Fernandez CASTRO (26) Presently working in F.R. Inspector Generals Office. Loyal to PL & JM. Has a US resident's visa works with the "Canadian". JM intends to contact thru Father O'Farrel.

4. "The Canadian" 1st Lt in Canadian AF. F.C. met him on trip to Canada where he asked if he could come to Cuba and work with 26. Arrived in May 59. Born in Cuba of Canadian parents. Assigned to JM's office when he expressed knowledge of just how Russians work based on his experience in Occupation duties in Germany. Assigned by JM to work in the office of Chief Political Police & report on extent of commie penetration also told to cultivate Maria (See JM's secretary of F.C.
