SUBJECT: Meeting w/ Dr. Guillermo Alfonso Pujol, 18 January 1962, at the Hotel Plaza, New York City

2. Mr. [] D3 using the alias Laberto, accompanied me to the meeting.

b. Pujol stated the meeting with a direct question: Will his letter contain in view of the changes in administration? My answer was in the affirmative; as a private American citizen, changes in the administration would not affect me in any case, but there is no letter in this area since the new administration there would be any change in our war.

c. Pujol then asked how long it would take before the ~~internal~~ or ~~area~~ would be liquidated. I answered to this that I did not know at this moment but even if I did, such information, as Pujol well understood, would have to be treated with the public strategy.

d. Pujol then said that he would return back about the ~~area~~ during the ~~area~~ and then would give me his proposal as to how to solve it. Concerning the current within the ~~area~~, Pujol referenced the factors of which we are already ~~area~~ ~~area~~

e. Pujol ~~denounced~~ the ~~internal~~ ~~area~~ of the ~~area~~ and the fact that its representatives are not representing the ~~area~~ people.

f. He spoke of the internal situation within the ~~area~~ Committee such as Garza comprising together ~~area~~ Mtro. Montero, Gómez, Del Rio ~~Monterrey and Col. Inspector General and other~~; ~~area~~ = ~~area~~ Arts concerning ~~area~~ the others, and Pujol felt that their ~~area~~ National Program was too leftist to suit anybody's purpose.

g. Pujol spoke of the political status within the ~~area~~ Mtro. Diaz was not accepted by the ~~area~~ Executive Council nor would he accept it; a special Cuban team sent from Cartagena to ~~area~~ had been undergoing Diaz's ~~area~~ ~~area~~ the ~~area~~ had received.

h. Pujol spoke about the terrible ~~area~~ progress and the need to end the Communist editorial policy of the New York Times and the Fair Play Committee ~~area~~ considers itself to be the future political government of Cuba.

i. Pujol said that the 60-man ~~area~~ Commission continues to try to end the ~~area~~

5. How can this crisis be solved Mr. Pujol asked.

6. Mr. Pujol informed me that on or about the 25th of January Carlos Prio would issue a statement in Miami announcing his break with Castro. Mr. Pujol said that he had written this statement for Prio and that it had been cleared with President Frendini.

7. The importance of Mr. Prio as an asset in the anti-Castro fight should not be underestimated: there are two big anti-Castro forces in Cuba, one is the U.P and the other is the Ardentico; Prio's open break with Castro will give tremendous importance to the Ardentico's activities in Cuba. Thus, Mr. Pujol proposed that the Executive Committee of the F.D.C. be organized in a broader basis than to incorporate into the group talented people who were nationally and internationally known: Prio, Pujol, Jose Manuel Cárdenas (President of the 1940 Constitutional Committee) Alverez Diaz, Carbo, Miro Cárdenas and Guillermo Baut. The function of this F.D.C. Executive Committee would be to implement U.S. policy which is given to it by the Bander Group, to front for the military effort necessary to overthrow Castro and to select the provisional government. Regarding the latter Pujol felt that members of this provisional government should not be eligible for election, the government should be based clearly on the 1940 constitution, the realization of Cuban equality before the law, moral pacification of the country, repeal all Castro laws which conflict with the 1940 constitution, and take such measures that should be necessary for an orderly transition from a provisional government to a freely-elected constitutional government. Economic, social, political and cultural reforms should be submitted to the freely-elected constitutional government and should not be handled by the provisional government. Throughout all this Mr. Pujol made it clear that this scheme would work only if the American Government and the Bander Group make it clear that they are running the show.

8. Pujol continued to say that after the committee had been organized as outlined above, the commissions of the F.D.C. should be reorganized also. The Planning Commission should be reduced to four men which would act as an advisory board, the General Staff should be given clear responsibility, the Bureaucracy should be reduced at least 60 percent, and F.D.C. delegations to Latin American countries should be decked up to get local support for eventual recognition of the provisional government.

9. Pujol said that the newly-constituted Executive Committee would appoint three Cubans to be the "coordinators" of other political groups in Miami and would be charged with a simple set of basic provisions on the basis of which the majority of anti-Castro groups could unite. Pujol said that all of these groups should be told that this is what they wanted and that they are "either with us or against us."

10. The sum total was, in the opinion of the undersigned, for all purposes to re-activate the Ardentico party in exile and to let it be known in Cuban circles that the Ardentico party has support in the U.S. I thanked Mr. Pujol for his presentation and said that I would not sit on his proposals but would pass them on to the appropriate people.
