To whom it may concern:

My name is [redacted] ⁰⁵ Cuban citizen who arrived to this country last November 4, 1961, through Key West by boat. My alien number is: [611-00914]

[Comandante] ⁰⁶ [Donaldo Ramirez] ⁰⁸ who has been fighting for two years [Castro's] communists in the mountains of the Escambray without any help from anyone, has sent me here with a special mission and a message of gratitude to the United States for the cooperation in the struggle against Castro, even though the Escambray anti-communist fighters haven't received anything but forgetfulness.

For these purposes, only we have been ordered to contact directly a representative from the C.I.A. in order to deliver my message from [Major] [Donaldo Ramirez] to find out if things could be settled down between the true and genuine Escambray's Army he leads and C.I.A., not having any kind of [Cuban politician] mediating in our private dealings, that are no others but Cuban sufferings and our private necessities to continue or start a real war against the Red Militia men that are surrounding us right at this very moment in the Escambray's mountains.

To identify myself, I've brought a letter and some other documents in which I am authorized to converse and have any kind of dealings with the C.I.A. in order to get a real quick help, and a support for our fight at the Escambray.

Hoping to hear the sooner possible from you for our cause and because I must get back to the mountains with all the help I could get right away.

Sincerely yours,
