5. LIHUFF/I is willing -- should this be desired -- to write to Ho Chi Minh (attaching a copy of Ho Chi Minh's letter to him) and ask if Ho Chi Minh would permit him to visit him and talk with him in Hanoi.

6. LIHUFF/I realizes that Ho Chi Minh may know he is a "Right Wing Capitalist" and may never reply; or, if he does reply, may refuse to give LIHUFF/I permission to enter North Vietnam.

7. It is requested that Headquarters reply, indicating whether or not there is any interest in having LIHUFF/I make this effort. If there is interest, Headquarters assistance in drafting the letter is requested, and suggestions on how best to get the letter to Hanoi are needed.

A. S.

Dear Sir,

In the general rejoicing of the victory of the Allies, victory of democracy & freedom over fascism & oppression - We feel a bit sorry, (1) our American friends are leaving us, (2) we have none or very small share in that democracy & freedom yet.

Anyhow, we will keep on fighting to get our full share. In our fight, we remain sure that the sympathy of the great people of America is with us. And when we attain our aim: National independence, we are going to meet our American friends again, and this, in happier conditions and in larger number.

At Phelan is becoming very popular among our guerrillas & villagers. Every one of us regret his leaving & hope he could come back here again.

The American pilot downed in DOXO TRIBU is safe and sound in the hand of Overseas Chinese bandits. Our local VML is in contact with them. We ordered our local VML to pay whatever sum of money the bandits ask, in order to get the pilot out and to send him back to his HQ.

We thank you very much of sympathy & aid you have given us. We remain sure that in the U.S. or wherever you be, you will win more friends for our country & our cause.

On behalf of VML, I send you a small souvenir - a lacquer painting by a Fengling artist, member of the VML.

I wish you good health and good luck, and beg to remain

Yours very sincerely,

C.M. Hoog
