which is valid for three months. He will travel to New York on 11 September 1963 via BOAC and will presumably enter the United States reportedly as a courier for the Cuban United Nations delegation.

4. In a report dated 14 August 1963, a former Cuban Intelligence staff officer reported the following information on (fau) YASSEL (astronomic unknown):

Source first met YASSEL in April 1959 when both attended a Military Attache course in Ciudad Mar, Santiago de Cuba; YASSEL, at that time, was a Second Lieutenant in the Cuban Rebel Army. During the period source was in Montevideo (between mid-March and mid-May 1962), he met YASSEL again when YASSEL visited the Cuban Embassy on two occasions as a diplomatic courier. YASSEL's courier run took him from Habana to Mexico-Chile-Uruguay-Brazil and back to Habana. Source, sometime in 1962, saw YASSEL in MINREX in Habana. Source also said that he is certain that YASSEL is a Cuban Intelligence Service functionary and a Communist. He described YASSEL as having been born about 1935, being five feet seven inches tall, 160 pounds, with black hair, dark eyes, a dark complexion, and having a medium build.
