Sergio Vicente Arcacha Soria (Enclosure 3 of reference memorandum)

BOAO: 29 January 1953, Cuba

1. SERGIO VICENTE ARCHA SORIA did not reflect the fact he first arrived in New Orleans, Louisiana, as he was the father of FORTY-ONE CUBAN REFUGEE CHILDREN who were in New Orleans prior to the departure of their parents and continued in the United States until the age of 18 years. The father was the predecessor of the Cuban Consulate in New Orleans and was a regular and frequent visitor to the office of immigration and customs at the port of New Orleans. He was a member of the Cuban community in New Orleans and was in contact with the Cuban Consulate in New Orleans and the Cuban community in New Orleans. He was in contact with the Cuban Consulate in New Orleans and the Cuban community in New Orleans. He was in contact with the Cuban Consulate in New Orleans and the Cuban community in New Orleans.

2. ARCHA SORIA was one of the promoters of the FRIENDS OF HAITIAN CUBANS, INC. (FHC) which was incorporated in New Orleans, Louisiana, in 1948. The organization was ostensibly created by several New Orleans business and political figures, including the deceased former FBI agent, Guy Banister, to collect money to aid Cubans in their fight against Communism. According to the articles of incorporation, these donations would also be used to support the FHC and the funds were to be channeled through ARCA SORIA, less a percentage to be retained by the FHC. An investigation conducted by Miami Station assets concluded that the FHC was organized exclusively for the personal gain of the promoters with the approval and collaboration of ARCA SORIA. The investigation produced no evidence that any individual donations were ever solicited or received and recommended that the files of the Broderick Company and the books of the New Orleans Exporters Company be investigated for evidence of these donations and possible evidence of federal tax evasion, since both the president of the New Orleans Exporters Company, Conrad E. Tumbay, and the Chief of New Orleans Services Co., Alfred Chittenden, were officials of the FHC. Approximately one month after the FHC was created, several criticisms from some prominent Cubans put the organization out of business.

3. Information on an immigration card reflects that ARCA SORIA traveled to Caracas, Venezuela at an unspecified date. His address in Venezuela was HOTEL TIENA, Caracas, and his US address was listed as 4523 Duplessis Street, New Orleans. Passport No. 00433.

CARLOS BRINGUER (Enclosure 5 of reference memorandum)

Carlos BRINGUER is a brother of Juan Felipe BRINGUER Esquivel, a former member of Brigade 2206 who was captured during the invasion. The personal history statement in Juan BRINGUER's 201 file states his brother Carlos, a lawyer in Cuba, was 26 years old at the time of Juan's recruitment in 1960.

1. Emilio SANTANA (phonetic) 7-A-07 reference memorandum

DPOB: 7 Sept 1936, Valdemar, Santa Fe, N.M.
(also reported 7 Sept 1936 and 7 Sept 1937)

1. Subject is prominently identified with Emilio SANTANA Galindo, who was recruited by JMWAVE in December 1960 as a gauge for an infiltration of Miami. SANTANA was paid a monthly salary under the auspices of his MIA until he was terminated on 15 October 1963. A major factor in the development by the team of Miami ingenuity and 70% capacity of the market area Soviet team was. Another component of the team for SANE was termination of contact from Miami through the reporting concerning certain aspects of the team operations.

2. In an effort to establish a reliable identification, JMWAVE obtained a report from the Sheriff's Office, Orange County, Florida, dated 22 October 1963. The Sheriff's Office report on Emilio SANTANA, an entrepreneur born 3 July 1936 in Cuba, was described as a native from Louisiana on a general warrant 22 October 1963, 1st sheet 1522071, based on two counts of Burglary in Louisiana. He was arrested and booked at the Parish County Sheriff's Office on 2 February 1963 and was presently sent back to Louisiana. At the time of his arrest SANTANA gave his address as 851 S. Via Stokol, Miami, which is the same address shown on an old identification card such as was living in Miami. Headquarters T-1's indicate SANTANA is separated from his wife who apparently still resides at the old Miami address. Since SANTANA's date of birth varies on various documents in his 204 file, the variation in birth date on his arrest sheet is not conclusive. The fact he did give his former address to the arresting officers indicates he is Emilio SANTANA Galindo. A 1962 migration form includes a photograph which could be obtained from JMWAVE for identification purposes if this becomes necessary.

3. Although JMWAVE has had no contact with SANTANA since his termination, there is a note in Station files dated 25 June 1967 that SANTANA used the money as his employer on an auto credit application.

Carlos QUIROGA (Paragraph 7(c) of referenda 150644000)

Subject is possibly identifiable with Carlos QUIROGA, a former student at Louisiana State University, who was a candidate for the Agency Student Recruitment Program. This involved recruitment of Cuban students in the US who would return to Cuba as missions in place. JMWAVE traces reflect an individual of the same name was an electrical engineer, residing at 5111 Terry Place, New Orleans, in December 1961. Subject reportedly had personal and domestic ties north of the Gulf of Mexico and was an agent CIA. Subject supplied and made the US statement. There is no indication that Carlos QUIROGA was ever employed by the Agency in any capacity.

Julian BUZNEDO (Enclosure 8 of reference memorandum)

DOB: 16 February 1910, Havana, Cuba

Subject is apparently identifiable with Julian BUZNEDO Castellanos, who arrived in the US on 10 November 1960 and enlisted in Brigade 2506. He was a civilian pilot in Cuba and served on the invasion craft BARBARA J. BUZNEDO was captured and released in the prisoner exchange. (There is no indication he was ever employed by the Agency, other than his participation in the invasion.

Gordon James ROVEL (Enclosure 19 of reference JCS/AVT/107)

There is no record of Subject in FBI/Civilian Observation Group Files or JCS/AVT files. JCS/AVT cited the article on ROVEL which appeared in the MIAMI HERALD on 26 April 1967, which is available in CI/R 2 A, and is in the process of conducting an exhaustive search for traces on the cover organization; ROVEL claimed to operate for the Agency in New Orleans.

ATTACHMENT 2 TO BRIG COG 07-193

1. The CIA was conceived, created, and funded by the Agency in September 1949 and terminated in December 1960. It was an outgrowth of the activities conducted by the CIA which were directed against the Cuban Revolution (CUBA) and were subsequently funded and organized into Cuba by the Agency in late 1959 where they operated by obtaining intelligence setting up support teams, etc., on through the Bay of Pigs invasion. While the CIA was initially set up as a special intelligence unit, the organization was given a large amount of personnel and funds and was made official. After the Bay of Pigs, the CIA continued its independent military activities which continued in Agency direction and because of a resolution in January 1961 and the termination of the Bay of Pigs operation in November 1961 as political action activities, and the establishment of a program which was sent to the CIA to support the Cuban international student activities in some instances, and a propaganda, radio program and special propaganda campaigns.

2. After the cessation of military operations, many of the CIA personnel were located in various areas. At present there are operations in most Latin American countries which have maintained some contact with various Agency stations over the years although the CIA is no longer very active. During the organization's 11-year period of active existence, CIA personnel were in contact with several SNAVE stations and outside contract agents. However, from January 1961 through December 1960, contact with CIA personnel was limited to two agents, Juan Manuel SAMAAT, the current CIA secretary general who is now operating a bookstore in Miami, Florida, and Fernando GARCIA-Chacon who was relocated in El Salvador.
