1. Transmitted under separate cover is a copy of the cable mentioned in paragraph 3 of Reference C. As will be seen, the text of this cable differs a great deal from that suggested in Reference A. We discussed the Reference A suggestion within the Station, and, in essence, with UNSNAFU/9. We came to the conclusion that such a strong personal attack on UNSNAFU/19 would probably accomplish little since UNSNAFU/19 had already sent in his version to Havana and could be expected to have the backing of most or all of the Paris Embassy personnel - despite noble claims to the contrary, made privately to UNSNAFU/9 by UNSNAFU/14 and AMALD/2. Also considered, especially by UNSNAFU/9, was the possible effect such action might have on AMLASH/1. UNSNAFU/9 was, and still is, very reluctant to take any action which might adversely affect AMLASH/1 or force AMLASH/1 into a position not of his own choosing, i.e., to have to take up the defense of UNSNAFU/9 without being able to choose his own time and place. 2. We are trying to get the story into the press here, as stated in Reference C, and will advise you of any results obtained. A dispatch on the subject of planning for UNSNAFU/9 will be forthcoming shortly. Peter M. Gladden PETER M.
