1. The attachment was passed to us by SMACT/l. SMABET prefers to make their inquiry through us in order to hold down the possibility of a news leak regarding William Martin's potential trip to SMADD. The last thing the SMADDS want is for this item to hit the papers. SMACT/l says the foreign minister would prefer that no visit take place. Until the latter learns more definitively from LNHARP authorities whether or not Martin would be subject to extradition he will reply to questions - should the proposed visit be leaked - that he has "no information." Meanwhile he would appreciate receiving LNHARP opinion as to Martin's current status in law. 2. Please advise. John W.
