C., has requested "twenty photographs of possible white male Americans who had been in Mexico City during September and October, 1963" which were shown on February 20, 1964 to Mexican resident Pedro Gutierrez Valencia in an effort to determine if Gutierrez might identify any of these unknown individuals as the person he previously identified as Oswald, whom he claimed to have observed at the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, on October 1, 1963. (u)

Also furnished to this office with the aforementioned twenty photographs were the three photos (u)
