Enclosed for the Bureau are five pictures which, according to [source] [1849-0A] were taken at an Alpha 66 meeting which was held in Dallas, Texas, a short time before the assassination of President JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY. [source] [1849-0A] advised that in photos number 1 and 2 there is an individual who resembles LEE HARVEY OSWALD. This individual is a white male who is wearing a brown jacket, dark brown pants, white socks and sunglasses and is situated in the front row of the audience. [In photos number 3 and 4, ANTONIO VECIANA, an Alpha 66 organizer, is shown. In photo number 4 he is standing before a microphone; in photo number 3 VECIANA is seated between two other men at a table.] (S)(U)

The enclosed photos, according to [source] are the [property of VECIANA], and that the source must soon return these to VECIANA. [These photos have not been marked in any way in order to preserve their original appearance.] (S)

The Bureau is requested to observe the enclosed photos and take whatever step deemed warranted to prove or disprove that the look-alike to LEE HARVEY OSWALD is, in fact OSWALD. It is also requested that this matter be given immediate attention so that this matter can be resolved and the photos promptly returned to the source [and then to ANTONIO VECIANA.] (S)
