"EMMA STERNE immediately took the floor and said that none of us should ever refer to OSWALD as the assassin. She said that in referring to him we should always say the alleged or suspected or accused assassin.

"She said, she felt that we may someday find out that he was innocent, and that the guilty party is a member of the right.

"She also said that half of the Dallas police are members of the JOHN BIRCH Society, and that by announcing just when OSWALD would be moved they did their best to see that he would be killed, and therefore silenced forever.

"BARBARA LINDSAY stated that she believes OSWALD was innocent, that his death was plotted by the F.B.I. and the Dallas police and that she felt in four or five years the true assassin of president KENNEDY may be known, and that his name would probably be RUBY.

"The money raised through contributions and the sale of liquor was turned over to FRANCIS FINK.

"This meeting was sponsored by the Committee for Constitutional Liberties.

"Those present were:

EMMA STERNE - Chairman
BOB & BARBARA LINDSAY
