Memorandum

TO : SAC, SAN FRANCISCO (~~100-0~~) DATE: 4/11/67

FROM : SA RICHARD J. MC MULLEN

SUBJECT: ROBERT EARL STEIFER
INFORMATION CONCERNING
(~~SECURITY MATTER~~)

Former SF 2802-S furnished the following information on March 28, 1967:

Captioned resides 33875 11th Street, Union City, California, unemployed, former employment - male nurse, former residence - 711 Pardee Court, Hayward, California. Arrested by Hayward PD in December, 1966. Presently on Welfare and residing at the above-address with SALLY FLEMING. States he is or has been an epileptic. Reportedly has served time at Terminal Island.

On 3/23/67, Subject advised as follows:

Subject has read many books on the assassination of President KENNEDY and he would like for this source, who is a private investigator, to go to an office such as Mark Lane and advise that he, this source, knows an individual who viewed the assassination of the president and also viewed those who committed the assassination. STEIFER stated that he knows nothing about the assassination other than that what he has read, however, he believes that he has read sufficient material to compose a fiction type story regarding the assassination. STEIFER then wants this source to somebody such as Mark Lane and if Lane accepts it STEIFER will then commence telling his story through this source. STEIFER is never to be known to the writer and will never be in a position to testify regarding his story.

STEIFER is of the opinion that so many books have been written regarding the assassination that any story could no doubt make thousands of dollars for the three of them.
