The following is a telephone conversation, November 23, 1963, 5:30 to 5:50 p.m. NAOMI KAGAN telephone NEvins 8-1664 and the voice of EVELYN BRONTON answered and said she would put "Pearl" (GER) on the phone. Then the voice of PEARL GER came on.

PEARL said she had been taking a nap and had been dreaming that she was in Washington (D. C.) with CATHY (BOWMAN), NAOMI (KAGAN) and EVELYN (BRONTON).

PEARL said she had been at a party yesterday with SADIE (VANVEEN). When asked about yesterday's news (President's assassination), she said that it was "a terrible thing, but then other people were being murdered, as in politics and wars." She said there was a lot of grief at first, but then "it's all politics."

PEARL said she was in Cooper Union yesterday with SADIE (VAN VEEN) and/or night before last.

About President KENNEDY's assassin (OSWALD), she said that he had denied everything and to remember that no violence was ever perpetrated by the left, ("maybe it wasn't him").

PEARL GER went on to mention that MARIANNIEST was back from the State of Oregon and was in the Senate Office Building, Washington, speaking to a Government official, when the news of the President's death was heard. She, MARIANN BEST, had also been in Dallas, Texas, the day before the President's assassination. When asked what she had been doing there, she, PEARL GER, laughed nervously and said that she didn't know, but that maybe she, too, could be a suspect in the President's assassination.

She mentioned also that the "New York Times" had real pictures of the building from which the shots were said to have been fired.
