Re Newark airtel to Bureau 12/2/63.

The thirty day mail cover placed on WALTER LOWMYERS, Weymouth Road (Box 204B, RD #2, Mays Landing), Weymouth, New Jersey, on 11/20/63, has developed no information pertaining to the identity of the sender of the correspondence from Dallas, Texas. The only correspondence received by LOWMYERS from Texas was from 118 West Roswood, San Antonio, Texas, on 12/2, 23/63 and 1/4/64. On 12/3/63, LOWMYERS mailed a letter from the Mays Landing Post Office to a JOHN W. STANFORD, 118 West Roswood, San Antonio, Texas.

No additional information has been developed by NY 2026-S having any bearing on the identity of the sender or significance of the correspondence from Dallas, Texas.

Inasmuch as LOWMYERS commented to the rural carrier at the time the correspondence from Dallas, Texas, was delivered to him that he was judging some sort of contest and the letter had arrived after the closing date of the contest and since NY 2026-S observed LOWMYERS at the latter's residence on 12/1/63 reading and judging poetry which had been mailed from points all over the United States, it is felt that a contestant for a poetry award having access to envelopes of Parkland Hospital had mailed his/her entry to LOWMYERS; therefore, no further active investigation is being conducted to identify this individual. Newark will immediately make available to the Bureau and Dallas any information NK 2025-S may develop through routine contacts with LOWMYERS which may have a significant bearing on this matter.

For information of San Antonio, WALTER LOWMYERS received a letter from an unidentified individual on 11/26/63 bearing the return address "Parkland Hospital, Dallas, Texas." The words "Parkland Hospital" were crossed off the envelope and a name, not recalled by the rural carrier, was typed in above. The following characterization of LOWMYERS was furnished by PH 244-S on 2/13/63 and is located in PH 134-107A-727:

WALTER LOWMYERS is currently a member of the Southwest Club, 2nd Congressional District, COMMUNIST PARTY EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA AND DELAWARE (CPEDP) but does not attend meetings in view of the fact he resides at Mayo Landing, New Jersey. LOWMYERS paid $25.00 during February, 1963, toward the CP sustainer and the CP Defense Fund.

Newark is presently in the process of preparing a communication to various offices to obtain current characterizations of certain individuals corresponding with LOWMYERS for the purpose of inclusion in the next annual report prepared on LOWMYERS.

San Antonio is requested to check indices on JOHN W. STANFORD and to furnish any available characterization of STANFORD based on possible subversive information in San Antonio files.
