II. B. Richard E. Snyder (Cont'd)

Dennis Flynn was a State Department employee from 1947 to 1967. From 1953 to 1956, he was Director of Security at the State Department. In the course of his assignments, Flynn became aware of the procedures for State Department cover for CIA employees.

When interviewed on June 16, 1978, Flynn stated that at no time from 1959 to 1963 did the CIA use the State Department's overseas consular positions as cover for CIA intelligence officers. Flynn stated that he remembers those CIA intelligence officers who had State Department cover in Moscow during this period, that he is sure that Richard E. Snyder and Jack F. Matlock were not CIA employees, and that he is fairly certain that John A. McVickar, Joseph Norbury, and Dr. Alexis H. Davison were not CIA employees. (Did he state what the cover position normally was or who CIA people in Moscow were?)

(HSCA staff interview of Dennis Flynn, June 16, 1978, pp. 1, 2, JFK Document No. 9534.)

So what's the conclusion - did he or didn't he?
