CIA Handling of Sylvia Duran Matter
President

When/John F. Kennedy was assassinated on November

22, 1963, the United States investigative agencies -- FBI,

CIA, Secret Service, etc.--were asked to investigate the assassination. When the Central Intelligence Agency learned that Lee Harvey Oswald had visited Mexico City ~~between~~ ^{the CIA is not a} ~~they~~ ^{they} late September and early October, ~~they~~ ^{it} reviewed ~~their~~ ^{its} files and found in the electronic surveillance files ^{and found} phone calls to the Soviet Embassy made September 27th,

September 28th, and October 1st, that could have been made by Oswald. (See Electronic Surveillance Section.)

^{IT} They also found phone calls between the Russian Consul and Sylvia Duran where Oswald appeared to ^(have) be discussed.

(See Soviet Electronic Surveillance Section.) In addition

^{IT} they found a phone call made by Sylvia Duran to the Soviet Consulate on September 28, 1978, where Sylvia Duran stated that there was an American citizen at the Cuban

Consulate who had previously visited the Soviet Consulate,

^{the above} and put a man on the line. (See Soviet Electronic Surveillance Section.) A final phone call where Oswald identified himself was also found. ^{on 10/3/78} (See Soviet Electronic Surveillance Section.)

At this point, the Central Intelligence Agency determined that it would ^{report} ask the Mexican Government-- ^{with} whom it had a good relationship ~~with~~--to arrest Sylvia Duran because she might shed some light on the circumstances surrounding the assassination. ^{As} Sylvia Duran was also a Mexican citizen, ^{and} did not have diplomatic immunity. The ~~Central Intelligence Agency's~~ ^{the} Mexico City Station sent a note to Luis Echevarria ^{identify nation} requesting that he arrest Sylvia Sylvia Tirado de Duran immediately. The agency stated that she was a Mexican citizen who ~~had~~ put Oswald in touch with the Soviet Embassy. The agency gave Echevarria a note with Duran's address, her mother's address, her brother's address, her license plate number, her home phone number and her place of work. The Mexico City Station also suggested that Duran be held incommunicado until she could be questioned on the matter. (Note to Luis Echevarria to arrest Sylvia Duran, November 23, 1963, CIA No. 444; Cable re oswald-Duran, Mexi 7029, November 23, 1963, CIA No. 441; Anne Goodpasture Chronology, Wx 7241, entry 36, November 23, 1963, CIA No. 635)

The request to Luis Echevarria was not authorized by the Central Intelligence Agency's Headquarters. When they received the cable on November 23, 1963, Headquarters

Mexicans to arrest Sylvia Duran on their initiative.
Similar logic dictated when Headquarters asked the Mexico City Station to request the Mexican authorities to interrogate Sylvia Duran to the extent necessary to clarify the outstanding points raised in their cables the previous forty-eight hours. Headquarters stated that the Mexico City Station could provide questions to the Mexican interrogators but that they wished no Americans to come in contact with Duran. (Cable CIA Headquarters to Mexico

This way of your life. It's covered by Berk.
When the Central Intelligence began to deal with the Warren Commission, Headquarters cabled the Mexico City Station that their present plan in passing information to the Warren Commission was to eliminate mention of telephone taps in order to protect their continuing operations. Headquarters stated that they would rely on Sylvia Duran's statements and on the Consular files which the Soviets gave the State Department. [Headquarters stressed that exact, detailed information from Tetamil-7 and Tetamil-9 (Penetration agents in the Cuban Embassy) on just what Sylvia Duran and other officials said about Oswald's visits and his dealings would be valuable and usable corroborative evidence. (CIA cable from Headquarters to Mexico City Station, December 21, 1963, DIR 90466, CIA No. 549; Chronology of Anne Goodpasture, December 21, 1963, Entry No. 268, CIA No. 682)]

Prior to three Warren Commission staffers' Messers. Willins, Slawson and Coleman) visit to Mexico City in April 1964 the Agency still felt that if an American contacted Sylvia Duran, ^{it} ~~their~~ covert continuing operations ~~would~~ might be endangered. Headquarters cabled the Mexico City Station that one of the touchy subjects that the staffers would discuss was whether they should talk to Sylvia Duran in Mexico at the Consulate. (Cable Headquarters to Mexico City Station, April 8, 1964, DIR 13026, CIA No. 698) Headquarters further cabled that the Warren Commission staffers knew that the Central Intelligence Agency had tap assets and that they might have guessed from the coverage that they had photo points and a source in the Cuban Embassy, but that they did not know the details on the Agency's arrangements with the Mexicans. Headquarters stressed that the Chief of Station should lend them all the needed assistance with the minimum possible disclosure of assets and techniques. (Ibid.) — Remind Berk to explain in his section how all this stuff

At this point the House Select Committee on Assassinations has determined that the Central Intelligence Agency thought their continuing electronic surveillance operation extremely sensitive and important. The Warren Commission would have needed to disclose sensitive information to contradict Sylvia Duran's story. The Central Intelligence Agency had input into what could go in the Warren Report.
