DRE

③ 1 April 1963 - Dade County: 11112178

DRE statement concludes:

- a. Cubans never received real military support from U.S.
- b. U.S. has confined Cuban exile leaders in unjust prison, within the city limits. In joint action with Gr. Britain, U.S. has settled blockade designed to protect Cuban Communist regime from Cuban exile attacks.
- c. Believe these measures were part of secret dealings that took place between U.S. and Russia during October crises.
- d. Cubans were not represented in those dealings nor their desires, so cannot accept them.
- e. Believe as a sovereign Country, nobody may limit our right to undertake whatever actions necessary to obtain freedom.
- f. Believe by ourselves, without help & burdened by limitations imposed on us, we will continue to pursue our freedom.

Group is considered enfant terrible of CIA by other exile groups. DRE would disintegrate without CIA support - members would become normal juveniles of exile community. Because of CIA support, DRE continues to play an inordinately large role in exile community.

~~CIA~~ JMWAVE recommends that more militant members of DRE be encouraged to join Argentine forces.
