Mr. Marvin Gray
Rockefeller Commission
Executive Office Building
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Gray:

In further response to your request for information about archival holdings in the Lyndon B. Johnson Library concerning relations with Cuba and the Dominican Republic, I am enclosing herewith selected pages from a draft finding aid sent to me by the Library. On this list the numbers in the left hand margin denote the box numbers containing the materials. Each entry line gives the name of the country, the folder title, and the range of dates of material contained within the folder.

This is not necessarily a complete listing of all of the Johnson Library holdings relating to Cuba and the Dominican Republic. It is, however, a listing of the primary file for national security materials bearing on those countries.

Please let me know when we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

RICHARD A. JACOBS
Deputy Assistant Archivist
for Presidential Libraries

REPLY TO
ATTN OF: Ken Rossman, NLJ

SUBJECT: Cuba and Dominican Republic Finding Aid

TO: Richard Jacobs, NL

19 MAY 1975

Enclosed are copies of eight pages from the NLJ Finding Aid for National Security Related Materials in the Papers of Lyndon Baines Johnson. This finding aid is, in effect, a folder title list. The pages here are from the series Country File; sub-series Latin America. The numbers at the left margin indicate archives container numbers.

Please note that this is not a complete listing of NLJ's holdings on Cuba and the Dominican Republic. It is, however, the listing of the primary file for such materials.
