September 23, 1959, the informant was interviewed concerning another urgent matter which precluded discussion with this informant concerning the subject. It was pointed out that this informant has stated that he has known the subject for many years and has used PICHARDO's acquaintance with EDWARD BROWDER, identified in this report, to obtain information from BROWDER concerning gun smuggling, illegal activity in Cuban pesos, and also anti-FIDEL CASTRO activity.

On September 27, 1959, MM 635-S telephonically contacted SA GEORGE E. DAVIS, JR., from Cuba at which time he stated he would return to Miami in approximately ten days. However, the informant has not appeared in the Miami area and is presumed to be still in Cuba.

The information attributed to the United States Embassy, Havana, Cuba, Welfare Section, concerning the subject was not given a T-symbol, inasmuch as the copies of the State Department's documents bore an "unclassified" stamp.

MM 97-272

An extra copy of this report is being furnished the Bureau for transmittal to Legal Attache, Havana, Cuba, since the subject's activities centered in Havana when he was associated with the Cuban Revolutionary Air Force.

Inasmuch as the subject has admitted his association with persons that were engaged in plotting action against the current Nicaraguan Government and such plotting having occurred in Havana, there appears to be no violation over which this Bureau has jurisdiction. Since all logical leads have been covered and the subject has been interviewed, the Miami Office is not contemplating any further investigation in this matter and the investigation is closed.

RAFAEL CABRERA CHAMORRO, mentioned in the details of this report, was the subject of Miami investigation carried under Miami case file 97-267, Bureau file 105-78514.

DOUGLAS LEFTBRIGHT, mentioned in the details of this report, is the subject of Miami Office file number 105-2025.

FERNANDO COBA, mentioned in the details of this report, is the subject of a Miami Office investigation, Miami file 105-1859, Bureau file 39-2591.

The Bureau is aware of the identity of JUAN FERNANDO DE CASTRO, mentioned in the details of this report. To date, DE CASTRO has not returned to Miami and has made no effort to contact the Miami Office.
