years prior to coming to the Soviet Union, were in conversation with JACOB GREEN, a member of the CP, USA, delegation then visiting Moscow, USSR. DICK and SUSAN talked to GREEN about mutual friends who had been members of the CP, USA. Upon inquiry from GREEN they stated they had been away from the US for about 2½ years and had been in Red China two years. They stated that they were in the theatrical business and that DICK was a cameraman. (S)(u)

During a discussion concerning people who had to leave the CP, USA, because they could not get a job otherwise, GREEN disagreed with DICK and SUSAN stating that he was one of those who had lost his job and had still stuck with the CP. DICK and SUSAN finally agreed that GREEN had taken the right position. (S)(u)

DICK and SUSAN said that their time in the Soviet Union was limited and that they were under pressure to return home. They pointed out that they could stay in the Soviet Union if they wanted to but had not made up their minds. They said that they were worrying about their passports to the US, particularly in view of the fact that they had illegally visited Red China, pointing out that it would be very bad for them if it were found out that they had made such a visit. (S)(u)
