Reference is made to my letter dated July 8, 1959, captioned as above, with enclosed letterhead memorandum setting forth detailed results of interview with subject immediately after his arrival in the United States, having defected as chief of the Cuban Revolutionary Air Force.

No steps are being taken by the Miami Office at this time to develop DIAZ as a regular informant of this office, since the information presently at his disposal did not justify such measures. However, DIAZ has been contacted on several occasions by the Miami Office on matters concerning which he may have past knowledge and during such contacts DIAZ has been most sincere and co-operative.
