ADMINISTRATIVE

The investigative period of this report is extended to include investigation by auxiliary offices not received at time of last report.

On October 15, 1969, Mr. BILL BARRETT of the IRS office, Miami, Florida, telephone 350-5221, stated he had a case on BROWDER relating to his 1969 and 1961 income tax. Mr. BARRETT desired to be advised when BROWDER is apprehended.

By communication dated August 6, 1969, Los Angeles advised the following:

It is believed by the Los Angeles Office that SID SHINE, mentioned in this report, was the informant of Sgt. FRANK WHEELING, Los Angeles Police Department, who in early July, 1969, advised that he had seen BROWDER at the airport, Atlanta, Georgia.

Per information received from ED HOSKINS, PCI (protect), ~~Miami file # 87-1763~~, the following investigation was conducted:

On September 17, 1969, SA RICHARD B. KELLOGG of the West Palm Beach (Resident Agency) Office advised he had on that date received a phone call from a Miami bondsman named DEL HOSKINS. HOSKINS related that he had seen in the Miami newspaper that EDWIN H. BROWDER, SR., had died and was to be buried on September 18, 1969. HOSKINS advised SA KELLOGG he, as well as many other bondsmen in the Miami area, at one time or another had been contacted by ED BROWDER, JR., who frequently got into trouble with the law and who contacted the bondsmen periodically to get him out of jail.
