Rerep SA DANIEL A. FLYNN dated 3/29/66, at NY.

On 6/9/66, NY 5225-S* dined with the subjects at their residence 110 Christopher Street, New York, NY. During the evening, the conversation covered general topics and at one point SUSAN FRANK stated, "We are the same as we were." NY 5225-S* seizing on this statement as an opportunity to express himself favorably toward Communist China stated, "I am sure you are but I am not. After much soul searching I came to the conclusion that China has taken the correct course in many ways." NY 5225-S* stated that this opened up a general discussion of the situation in Vietnam. During this conversation NY 5225-S* took a position favoring the actions taken by the Vietcong. RICHARD FRANK did most of the talking but spoke only general terms. RICHARD FRANK, in speaking, was extremely pro-Chinese. He indicated that the Buddhist leaders behind the scenes commanded a great following but that the war is forming a polarization of thought and this is causing the Buddhists to lose their power, forcing them to make their present moves. He stated there is nothing revolutionary about them and they are now seeking American support. (X)(u)
