For the information of Portland, San Francisco, and Seattle, LASKY recently visited the New York area, photographs were obtained and are being provided in view of LASKY's extensive involvement in Weatherman matters on the West Coast.

The following pertains to LASKY's activities at New York City:

On 9/15/72, NY 11893-EG, advised that an individual matching the description of subject arrived at the apartment complex, 205 W. 89th St., NYC, at approximately 2:30 p.m., 9/14/72. LASKY was observed exiting apartment complex at 10:00 a.m., on 9/15/72 by Bureau Agents.

On 9/15/72, NY 11893-EG, advised that subject, in company with DANA ANN MC ILWAIN and BARBARA OLSON, departed the apartments in the evening and dined at a small chinese restaurant in the general area of the apartments. Subject got in an argument with the owner of this restaurant when he claimed that he found a dead roach on his plate, and refused to pay his bill. The owner claimed subject brought the roach with him in an effort to get a free meal. Subject paid for the drinks but did not pay for his meal. All three individuals returned that evening to the MC ILWAIN/OLSON apartment, Number 10-F, 205 W. 89th St.

On 9/15/72, LASKY exited the apartments at approximately 10:00 a.m., walked around the apartments then returned temporarily and departed again. He appeared to be looking around the neighborhood. At 12:50 p.m., subject returned to the apartments. At 1:15 p.m., he exited the apartments, again went to a nearby pizza shop, next went to a Bar-B-Q restaurant and ate alone. Subject exited this restaurant and slowly made his way back to 205 W. 89th St. (LASKY was very evasive in his maneuvers on this date. He appeared to be watching activity across the street from where he stood by looking at the reflection on store glass windows while pretending to window-shop: he constantly back-tracked and crossed streets at random; he constantly changed his pace and approximately 5'9" in height, 155 pounds, brown hair-curly-unkept, down just past collar in back, to eyebrows in front, mustache that wrapped around to a short goatee, vandyke style, long-narrow face, close set eyes.

After about two hours, both LASKY and FRANK exited the Ninth Circle and entered 148 W. 10th St., NYC. One half hour later, LASKY exited alone, carrying a white envelope, took considerable evasive action including a stop in phone booth and a return trip to the Ninth Circle, then proceeded to the subway and returned to 89th Street, NYC.

On 9/19/72, LASKY exited the apartments alone, carrying a small leather suitcase proceeded via public transportation to John F. Kennedy airport, took United Flight Number 5 to Los Angeles. He did not make reservations for this flight. The flight departed New York at 12:00 p.m., due to arrive at 2:20 p.m., LA time.

In addition to the evasive action mentioned above, it was noted that while at the Ninth Circle, LASKY took a table next to a window, he faced one direction and FRANK faced the other direction, they had an unobstructed view of the street in both directions.

NY 11893-EG overheard LASKY talking to the doorman at 205 W. 89th St., on several occasions. Upon arrival LASKY commented that he would be staying about three days, that he was a cousin of MC ILWAIN, that he was from the West Coast and that he was originally from the New York area. LASKY was later overheard talking about his ordeal at the Chinese restaurant, and, upon departure from the New York area, he told the doorman exactly how he intended to travel to JFKIA, and advised that he was heading back to the West Coast. The significance of this is not known but it does not seem consistent with his otherwise clandestine behavior.

While at NYC, LASKY resided at Apartment 10-F, 205 W. 89th Street, residence of DANA ANN MC ILWAIN and BARBARA OLSON. Investigation of MC ILWAIN and OLSON, as well as other individuals at the West 89th Street address, is being conducted at NY under the caption "DANA ANN MC ILWAIN; SM-PA (EXTREMIST), (OO:LA)" (NY 100-176779).

Investigation of FRANK will be conducted under case caption "RICHARD FRANK, JR., aka, Rick; SM-PA; (OO:NY) (NY 100-177125).

Investigation at NY has determined that FRANK resides in Apartment 2-A, 148 W. 10th Street, NYC, with DARIAN PRICE and is a member of the Elephants Memory, a rock music group.

On 9/21/72, NY 7543-S advised DARIAN PRICE has been deeply involved in various New Left causes and is currently the manager of the Elephants Memory.

Source added that this rock group is heavily involved in drugs.

Numerous photographs of unknown individuals were obtained during surveillances. These will be reviewed by NY and information obtained will be disseminated.
