On 10/4 and 10/8/64, CG [5908]-S, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished SAs HERBERT K. STALLINGS and ROBERT R. GLENDON information on a contact with HOMER BATES CHASE at CHASE's residence in Dorchester, Mass., on 10/2-3/64.

During this contact CHASE spoke of his recent trip to Albania and the fact that he did attend the Albanian Conference. CHASE stated that he and his wife attended this conference but did not indicate that any other person from the U.S. had attended.

As this was the first meeting between CHASE and CG [5908]-S and as this informant was at a disadvantage during his meeting with CHASE since CHASE had brought along five other individuals for discussion at the meeting, it was impossible for him to press for details concerning CHASE's participation in the Albanian Conference. Neither was he able to specifically ask if other individuals from the U.S. had attended this conference.

During the meeting with CHASE on 10/2-3/64, one PHIL (LNU), early 50s, and one SUE (LNU), approximately 50 years of age, both white, participated in the discussion. Informant described SUE as outspoken and as a person holding CHASE's pro-Chinese views. (X)(u)

Informant viewed a photograph of subject and stated that she was not identical to the SUE (LNU) who attended this meeting. Informant stated that both PHIL and SUE indicated during the meeting that they were from the Boston area. (X)(u)

As it is entirely possible that there will be future meetings with CHASE and as it may be possible that at such future meetings CHASE will voluntarily contribute details concerning the recent Albanian Conference, this informant has been cautioned to remain alert to determine any information concerning the captioned subject. (X)(u)

For New York's information, Boston has been requested by separate communication to submit photographs of PHIL and SUE as it is believed these individuals are active people in the Boston area. (X)(u)
