Technicalities on which subject's expatriation case ordered reopened deal with fact that subject repeatedly took 5th Amendment to questions asked of him at previous hearing and PEDRO DIAZ LANZ did not testify on subject's behalf although he was supposed to have done so. Case was ordered reopened to hear testimony of those two persons which, according to the INS official handling matter, is very unusual and not according to precedent. It is noted that when SA KELLOGG saw subject at home of PEDRO DIAZ LANZ, subject was casually questioned about the status of his expatriation and without being specific he said he was rather confident that it would be taken care of and indicated it was being taken care of "in Washington."

Instant case is being closed in view of apparent inactivity on part of subject individually and in view of fact his only anti-CASTRO activity is apparently in conjunction with DIAZ LANZ whose activities are presently being reported in the case on DIAZ LANZ, ^{his} organization, the CCC (Cuban Constitutional Crusade), and case on the unity group which includes his organization, the Liberation Alliance. Coverage of activities of PEDRO DIAZ LANZ and his organization will be followed in future in one or more of those cases so long as the situation calls for such coverage and it is believed such coverage will adequately cover subject. If situation so dictates, ^{The} a separate case on subject will be reopened.
