Re Bureau letter to Charlotte 7/18/68 enclosing a CID investigative report.

The CID report was reviewed and, based on the information contained therein, it is apparent the information provided by CE 2243-C was valuable to CID in their investigation.
The CID investigation is closed with one conviction, a fine, and a recovery of $27,578.35. The amount stolen from the U. S.
Government could not be determined.

Since the information furnished by the FBI from the informant is not reflected in detail in the report, its value cannot be precisely determined; however, it can be assumed that informant's information was extremely valuable since it was both timely and accurate and identified at least two of the subjects and the base of operation of the illegal activity.

On 8/12/68, CE 2243-C was recontacted concerning this matter, and he advised he could not provide any additional pertinent information concerning it.

In view of the fact this illegal activity took place outside the U.S. and the matter has been resolved by CID, this case is being placed in a closed status as no additional information can be obtained.
