Sub Sect ORGANIZATION

and discontinue their association with HEMMING. The fourth individual, ~~JOE GARMAN~~, plans to stay with HEMMING's organization and two of the individuals arrested received a sentence of thirty days in jail. (S)(u)

MM T-1 said HEMMING continued contacts with ~~AURELIANO SANCHEZ ARANGO~~, head of a Cuban revolutionary organization known as Revolutionary Junta for National Liberation; ~~ELOY GUTIERREZ MENOYO~~, a Cuban national, who was formerly a commander in the Second Front in Cuba; ~~ROBERTO VERDEGUER~~, formerly a pilot with the Cuban Air Force, and ~~ROGELIO CISNEROS~~. (S)(u)

MM T-1 said that HEMMING claims that the government of Honduras is in a difficult position, needs some anti-communist forces and if it got anti-communist help, it would thereafter help these people to go against the present government of Cuba. HEMMING claims that ~~ROBERTO VERDEGUER~~ claims he has connections in Honduras and that he and HEMMING are considering asking the President of Honduras for permission to set up a training camp in that country. (S)(u)

MM T-1 explained that although there is no way to evaluate HEMMING's claims concerning Honduras, it is extremely doubtful that he or VERDEGUER have any governmental contacts in Honduras or if such a plan will ever materialize. (S)(u)

Sub Sect ORGANIZATION

MM T-1 on July 20, 1961, advised that ~~DICK WATLEY~~, ~~ROBERT WILLIS~~, and ~~GUS (LNU)~~, former members of HEMMING's organization, recently left Miami and returned to Chicago, Illinois. (S)(u)

~~ED COLLEY~~, formerly associated with HEMMING, had returned to Boston, Massachusetts, and ~~TOM KANE~~ left Miami and hitchhiked to some Northern state. (u)

MM T-1 explained that the few members that HEMMING had in his organization have become discouraged with HEMMING's promises and lack of action and soon (S)(u)

came to realize that HEMMING had no chances for success or acceptance in Cuban revolutionary activities; consequently, these members left the organization and INTERPEN as an organization no longer exists. (X)(u)

On July 24, 1961, MM T-1 advised that HEMMING recently went to Ocala, Florida, and reportedly talked to a man who owns a large tract of land. The man offered to let HEMMING establish a training camp on this land if HEMMING and his associates would work part time clearing the land. HEMMING claims that he was told that if he could recruit thirty or forty men, the owner of the land would give them $30. a day for food, cots and living quarters. The owner claimed he would put in an airstrip for HEMMING to teach parachute training and HEMMING claimed he would start such a camp there with a complement of about six to ten men. (X)(u)

On July 31, 1961, MM T-1 said that HEMMING had forgotten all about the plan to establish a training camp at Ocala, Florida, and preferred to stay in Miami where he would be closer to Cuban revolutionists, and the up-to-date news concerning the political maneuvers of the different Cuban revolutionary organizations. (X)(u)

On July 31, 1961, MM T-1 advised that on July 28, 1961, HEMMING met with ELOY GUTIERREZ MENOYO, FRANK LITTLE, an associate of HEMMING's, (FNU) MORTON, and one other unidentified Cuban. (X)(u)

This group made up a list of equipment which they would try to obtain and use to locate a base outside of the U.S. in the Caribbean for training and future attacks against Cuba. This group decided they would try to obtain a boat to go there and this would be a joint enterprise between GUTIERREZ and HEMMING. MM T-1 explained that GUTIERREZ MENOYO's father and brother were both known communists in Cuba and that ELOY himself fought on the (X)(u)
