Re Kansas City letter dated 10-4-61 captioned "Jerry Hemming, aka Jerry Patrick, IS-Cuba, Neutrality Matters," no copy to San Francisco, wherein it was stated Kenneth Stanley Platz, Coates House Hotel, Kansas City, Missouri, was interviewed concerning his activities with Hemming at Miami. For the information of Kansas City, Hemming is the leader of the abovecaptioned group on which Miami has a pending neutrality matters case.

Kansas City should promptly interview Platz thoroughly and penetratively concerning his activities as set forth in relet since he is a possible subject in captioned case. Attempt to obtain signed statement concerning dates of the trip he made to deliver guns, the quantities involved, to whom delivered, descriptions of PT boat owner and those to whom the guns were delivered as well as conversations held with these individuals, number of guns and types with which the men were equipped in the guerilla warfare training and the names of all individuals he recalls who were connected with Hemming and his organization.
You should obtain specific names, dates, places and circumstances of all Platz's activities in connection with his association in report form, nine copies for the Bureau.

Miami will recall that Augustin Capo allegedly had access to a PT boat in May, 1961. You should furnish Kansas City with a photograph of Capo and any Cuban known or likely to own a PT boat. Miami should promptly interview Hemming concerning all aspects of this matter furnished by Platz.
