BILL LOWERY reported that WEAVER had told him that the expenses that the ANDREW faction spent in chartering a bus to the Young Democrats National Convention, plus those that have been spent in paying some of the new members' dues had been paid by a Dixie-crat named JOHNSON. JOHNSON is connected with Lone Star Steel.

GONZALEZ and ANDREW had recruited a number of Latin Americans and paid some of their dues. These new Young Democrat members had been recruited personally by them, or through the phone. These new members did not really know what was going on in the Young Democrats. They were coached by GONZALEZ and ANDREW, however, to support their side. The other faction to offset this effort had
