RE: MOVIMIENTO INSURRECCIONAL DE
RECUPERACION REVOLUCIONARIA
(MIRR)
INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA;
NEUTRALITY MATTER

DECLASSIFIED BY SP6 BJA/gcl
ON 9/12/85

Previous investigation has reflected that the MIRR is an anti-Castro organization of Cuban exiles headquartered in Miami under the leadership of Dr. Orlando Bosch Avila. The MIRR has claimed credit for several airplane bombing raids over Cuba in 1963. Their last attempt was stopped when the U. S. Customs and U. S. Coast Guard seized two boats, explosives, and a plane on December 28, 1963, in the Miami area.

In January and February, 1964, Dr. Bosch began making plans for further raids, but encountered difficulty in raising sufficient funds with which to carry out his plans.

Current Developments

On March 25 and 26, 1964, MM T-1, a Cuban exile who is friendly to some of Bosch's close associates, advised that Bosch's plans have recently undergone some revision and acceleration. Bosch intends to set up a base of operations on Andros Island in the Bahamas. He will rent a boat in the Miami area and transport a quantity of arms and explosives from Miami to Andros Island where these material will be cached. On this trip he will attempt to choose a suitable air strip to accommodate an Aerocomander plane.

Thereafter, the plane will be used to bomb sugar centrals in Cuba, taking off from Andros, but returning to Florida after each raid. (u)

Bosch also will use one or more small boats to attack a Russian freighter off the coast of Florida. These attacks will be launched from Andros Island. (u)

MM T-1 stated no dates have been set for establishing the base on Andros Island, or for attacking any of the targets. Bosch has not yet acquired a plane. (u)

MM T-1 said the MIRR, under the direction of Bosch, is now cooperating with the Comandos L, which is an anti-Castro action group under the leadership of Antonio Cuesta and Ramon Font, both of Miami. (u)

Bosch has disclosed that Comandos L has made plans for a boat raid against shipping off the north coast of Cuba near Camaguey Province. Comandos L is monitoring marine radio messages involving merchant vessels proceeding south off the coast of Florida toward Cuba. This information will be utilized by Comandos L in selecting a target. (u)

MM T-1 said that one of Bosch's men, Orlan Ramirez, an explosives expert, is preparing the explosive materials to be used by Comandos L. MM T-1 did not know any further details concerning the Comandos L operation, but felt that it might be imminent. (u)

He advised that Bosch is also interested in long range plan of establishing a base of operations in the Dominican Republic. He is considering the advisability of (u)
