MEMO, SAC:

Re: "MINUTEMEN"
INFORMATION CONCERNING
SECURITY MATTER

2728 SW 24 Ave.

When JOHN FREEMAN was interviewed on January 29, 1965, he mentioned there was an individual employed on the same construction job on which he was working, and during conversations with this individual, whose name he could not recall, this individual stated that he was a "Minuteman." This individual indicated he had attended a training school for "Minutemen" last fall near Denver, Colorado. He advised he had this individual's name at his residence, and if he located it, he would furnish it to the Miami Office. //

On January 30, 1965, FREEMAN telephonically advised the identity of the above-mentioned individual was WILLIAM HUGHES KLEIN, 15340 N. W. 28th Court, Opa-locka, Florida.

Miami indices contain a reference (9-1187) in which WILLIAM H. KLEIN, 15340 N. W. 28th Court, Opa-locka, Florida, was a victim of an extortion case in 1957. It was indicated that KLEIN had received several threatening letters complaining about noise made by him and his children, and threatening his children would be shot unless he moved out of the area.

The above is set forth for information.
