born, when, and other information relating to INGRAM's personal history. The other individual F. C. LUWISCH stated that while he has not heard of any investigation being conducted on him specifically, he has reason to believe that the FBI has been following him. Source contacted stated that he has heard that many of the Klan units in several of the Parishes across Lake Ponchatrain have become disorganized, and arguments have started among its members in that the FBI was conducting an extensive interview block. Source stated that the FBI is apparently interviewing every member of the Klan in the Washington and St. Tamany Parish areas. On November 6, 1964, source advised that Post Office Box 2610 was the Post Office Box used by him at which to recieve mail relating to United Klan business in the New Orleans area. Source stated that he believed that the Knights of White Christians was probably a front used by ALVIN COBB to conceal the fact that this was actually a Ku Klux Klan group. Source stated that he would attempt to ascertain if the United Klan group was using the name of the Knights of the White Christians (KWC) as a cover, or if this was a separate organization. On November 13, 1964, source advised that the Name Youth
