SUBJECT: Q ANTI-FIDEL CASTRO ACTIVITIES
IS - CUBA

On April 15, 1960, pursuant to a prior telephonic request by Mr. WILLIAM D. PAWLEY, Mr. PAWLEY was interviewed at his office in Miami by Special Agents LEMAN L. STAFFORD, JR., and GEORGE E. DAVIS, JR.

It is to be noted that Mr. PAWLEY is a prominent Miami businessman, financier, and a former U. S. Ambassador to Brazil. He is also the organizer of the Flying Tigers.

During the course of the interview, he disclosed that he is a personal friend of the Director of the FBI, as well as of President EISENHOWER, former President TRUMAN and many other influential people in the United States and Latin America.

Mr. PAWLEY said that he is deeply concerned about the communist trend in Cuba and its effect on other Latin American countries, and that he has been in close contact with the U. S. State Department and the CIA relative to this situation.
