Reference is made to previous correspondence between your office and the Bureau, the latest being your airtel 11-10-64, concerning information furnished your office by the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division (ATTD) regarding a group known as "Minutemen" operating in the Fort Worth, Texas, area. Your referenced airtel 11-10-64 set forth the results of your initial interview with Van Pollard who is the source of the information ATTD furnished your office. Reference is also made to Bureau airtel 11-10-64 captioned "Alleged Klan Participation In Insurrection Plot, Racial Matters."

A review of the correspondence submitted by your office in this matter discloses that there are numerous unanswered questions which should be pursued by your office through interviews of Pollard and intensive investigative effort by your office. For example, there is no information indicating that Pollard's "group" is associated or affiliated with the "Minutemen" organization headed by Robert DePugh of Norborne, Missouri. In this regard, it is noted that, according to the ATTD agent who has been in contact with Pollard, he advised that when he queried Pollard if the groups were the same all over the country, Pollard seemed surprised that anyone would think there were several such groups. Another example is seen in the fact that the ATTD agent on one occasion stated he "believes his informant to be reliable" while on another occasion he advised he was "unable to evaluate the reliability of his informant."

On a third occasion the ATTD agent advised he did not believe his informant was "being honest with him." The above are merely examples of unanswered questions regarding this matter and are not intended to be all inclusive.

It is noted that in your communications you did not set forth the results of indices searches of your office concerning the various individuals mentioned by Pollard nor concerning the individuals identified by him as members of his group. For your information, no record could be located in Bureau files identified with the following individuals other than that information submitted by Pollard: Arthur Seals, William T. Seals, Lester Winders, Shirley Bob Renshaw and Arthur Pollard, the informant's brother. The only reference identifiable with the informant located in Bureau files is that relating to your case entitled "Van Wiley Pollard, Et Al, Theft of Government Property," Bufile 52-31892. A review of this file indicates that Pollard was arrested in 1945 in connection with the theft of some ammunition and a U. S. Army rifle from the Texas State Guard Armory. He entered a plea of guilty and was fined $50. In this connection, there is enclosed a copy of FBI Identification record number 4258867 regarding Pollard. In addition, a check of the "civil" prints in the Bureau's Identification Division disclosed an applicant-type print for Pollard taken 9-20-43 for employment as a laborer with Swift and Company, Fort Worth, Texas. No "service" print was located for Pollard despite the fact that he was born in 1923 and would have been subject to military service during World War II. In checking out leads concerning Pollard and his background, you should bear this in mind to determine the basis why he was not called into military service during World War II.

You are instructed to have Pollard immediately and thoroughly interviewed by two experienced Agents for all information in his possession regarding his "group." Prior to the interview, the Agents should thoroughly review all of the information furnished by ATTD during its contacts with Pollard and Pollard should be questioned thoroughly regarding such information. The results of your interviews should be furnished the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination and you should include, at least in your transmittal communication, your evaluation of Pollard, his reliability and the accuracy of the information he has furnished.

You should insure that all potential leads are followed to their logical conclusions including the development of background information and activities concerning the members of Pollard's "group." You should also determine whether Pollard's "group" is autonomous group or whether it is affiliated with DePugh's "Minutemen."

You should insure this matter receives expeditious continuous and intensive investigative attention and in this regard you should insure that the instructions contained in referenced Buairtel dated 11-10-64 are taken into consideration and closely followed.

In the event it is determined Pollard's "group" is not affiliated with DePugh's "Minutemen," your communications should be submitted under a caption so that your investigation in this matter will not be confused with the investigation of DePugh's organization.

You should furnish the Bureau with ten copies of all correspondence prepared for dissemination with at least four copies of the transmittal communication designated for the Bureau.

The importance of determining the facts in this matter at the earliest possible date cannot be emphasized too strongly and the Bureau should be kept promptly advised of all pertinent developments.
