The following is a translation of an item which appeared on June 15, 1958 in the column "RELOJ" of the "Diario Las Americas", a Spanish language newspaper published in Miami Springs, Florida.

"May 19--The command of WILLIAM ALEXANDER MORGAN has been fighting for a long time against army forces in the zone between the Soledad Central and the South Circuit. MORGAN's men, excellently trained by him, a World War II veteran, attacked the soldiers, causing many casualties among them and seizing a large number of weapons from them. The wounded were transferred in trucks the same evening to Cienfuegos." (u)

On July 2, 1958, RENE VIERA, PSI, who runs the column "RELOJ" in the "Diario Las Americas" advised he has no information concerning the background of the subject. VIERA states he receives letters from the Escambray Front in Cuba via couriers from time to time

VIERA stated he may possibly be able to obtain information concerning the subject from some of the couriers who come to Miami periodically. He states he will contact the Miami Office in the event he obtains further information concerning the subject. (S)(u)

On July 14, 1958, RENE VIERA was recontacted and advised he has unconfirmed information that the subject was a room mate of PETER KORENDA (PH), an American tourist who was killed during the attack on the Presidential Palace on March 13, 1957. VIERA states both MORGAN and KORENDA were living at the Sevilla Biltmore in Havana at the time. (S)(u)

On July 2, 1958, MM 639-S advised he has never heard of the subject, but will contact the Miami Office if he should obtain any information concerning him. (S)(u)
