California, area to assist in the training of a Nicaraguan revolutionary group centered in either Oaxaca, Mexico, or in Honduras.

MORALES said he learned from GAMEZ on September 22, 1961, that this revolutionary group is headed by VICENTE ZAMORA, CARLOS PASOS, Nicaraguan Army General, and both of whom are reportedly millionaires and ENRIQUE LACAYO FARFAN. ALL NICARAGUA

U.S. GAMEZ told MORALES about six months previously he had obtained the services of one GERRY (LNU) who he said had been previously a part of the guerrilla forces of Major WILLIAM MORGAN, the renegade American who fought in Castro's Army prior to Castro's taking over the Cuban government in January 1959. According to GAMEZ, this GERRY is presently at a training site, location of which he did not specify but which MORALES believed was either Oaxaca, Mexico, or in Honduras. He also said he went to Nicaragua in 1959 and in 1960. He told CRUZ he would be in Los Angeles about a year and expected to return to Nicaragua and felt Nicaragua would be successful in its revolution and that the Somoza regime in Nicaragua would fall.

According to an article appearing in the July 5, 1961, issue of the "Los Angeles Mirror," datelined Miami, JOSEPH PATRICK HEMMING is presently training a band of guerrillas in south Florida to help in the downfall of FIDEL CASTRO. HEMMING said he prefers to have the name GERRY PATRICK in commanding
