SUBJECT: ANA QUINTANA aka

IS-CUBA DECLASSIFIED BY 5668 SLD/KSP
RA-CUBA ON 5-23-98 (JFK)
ReMMlet to Bureau, 3/10/61.

Concerning the Photostat of check number 398 in the amount of $275. payable to ANA M. QUINTANA, which MANUEL GUILLOT had in his possession together with other documents purportedly proving an invasion of Cuba would take place from the US, NY 3042-S advised on 3/15/61, that GUILLOT did not specifically indicate how or where he obtained the Photostat. Informant expressed the opinion that GUILLOT could have obtained the check for Photostating from the subject prior to his trip to Miami.

Concerning "Aurora", the unidentified female, whom subject's husband reported as the individual who, in the presence of JOSE SANCHEZ and "CUCHO", instructed the subject to telephonically contact her ("Aurora") whenever she received information in the form of letters from her husband, informant believes that "Aurora" may no longer be in NY. He expressed this belief on the basis of his position of trust and close association with SANCHEZ, feeling that he would have "heard of 'Aurora'", if she were active in Cuban intelligence activities.

In view of the above, it is requested that the Bureau give consideration to ascertain from CIA if that agency continues to utilize FRANCISCO QUINTANA for the transmittal of controlled information to his wife and if she in turn continues to pass it to "Aurora". Also, any descriptive information that he might possess concerning "Aurora" which would assist in identifying her is requested.
