Re Los Angeles report of SA HARVEY G. BERKEY, 6/22/65.

On October 5, 1965, former LA 3402-S (who has furnished reliable information in the past and who wishes her identity remain concealed) advised that Mr. LAWSON and his wife had been guests in her home the previous day. During the course of the conversation, it was learned that LAWSON, accompanied by his wife, will travel to the San Francisco Bay area on or about October 6, 1965, "to visit with their daughter for no more than a week or ten days." (S)(U)

Subject's daughter, SUSAN AMANDA LAWSON (aka MANDY LAWSON) is the subject of San Francisco file 100-31144; Bufile 100-392671; and Los Angeles file 100-42616.

As LAWSON, a Security Index subject of the Los Angeles Division, is only making a temporary visit to northern California, no FD-122 or FD-128 will be submitted. The above source is a close associate of LAWSON and has been alerted to advise the Los Angeles Division upon subject's return.

The above is for the 10/5/65 information of the Bureau and San Francisco to indicate subject will be a temporary visitor in the latter division for no more than ten days during the month of October 1965. No further investigation is required in Los Angeles at the present time.
